LITERARY LUMINARY: Your job is to find two passages from the text that your group should hear again. These passages might be memorable, interesting, puzzling, funny, important, or contain figurative language. Write the page and paragraph number on this paper so you can find the passage and read it to the group. You will also need to be able to explain to your group why you chose the excerpts. Use thoughtful, complete sentences to summarize what's happening in the passage and explain why you chose it.
