

Prepositional Phrases WS – 2

Name _____

Date _____ Period ____

Directions: Combine the following sentences into one. Place the prepositional phrases after the nouns they modify in Sentence A in each set. Put parentheses around the prepositional phrases.

- Example:*
- a. Brian rarely leaves his home for trips.
  - b. His home is in the city.
  - c. The trips are in the wild.

Combined: Brian rarely leaves his home (in the city) (for trips) (in the wild.)

- 1.
- a. A group persuaded my cousin Brian to join them on a camping trip.
  - b. The group was of friends.
  - c. The trip was to Yosemite National Park.

---

---

---

- 2.
- a. They rented a car and set out for Yosemite.
  - b. The car was with a rack.
  - c. The rack was for their camping gear.

---

---

---

- 3.
- a. When they finally arrived at midnight, they found a campsite.
  - b. The campsite was for backpackers.
  - c. The campsite was next to a stream.

---

---

---

- 4.
- a. His friends locked their bags in the car, but Brian hid his pack in his tent.
  - b. His friends' bags were of food.
  - c. Brian's pack was of candy bars and comic books.

---

---

---

5.    a.    Throughout one night, Brian heard strange noises and felt strange lumps.
      b.    One night was of terror.
      c.    The noises were outside the tent.
      d.    The lumps were under his sleeping bag.

---

---

---

---

6.    a.    When they awoke the next day, they discovered they had chosen a campsite.
      b.    The campsite was under a pine tree.
      c.    The pine tree was with a sleeping bear.

---

---

---

7.    a.    All the friends packed up their gear, Brian grabbed his pack, and they moved to a motel.
      b.    The pack was of candy bars and comic books.
      c.    The motel was with a swimming pool and restaurant.
      d.    The motel was on the outskirts of Yosemite.

---

---

---

---